

COME, THEY GO

You Know, And Some You Don't Know.

Days of a Day in Live Oak.

Chills and Colds, take Tonic.

McClellan, of Woodstock, was in the city yesterday.

Goss, of Wellborn, was in the city this morning.

K Kemmerlin was in the city this morning. He is improving.

supply of Bulst Garden Seed received at Mays Bros.

J. M. Gornto, of Mayo, was in the city this morning.

Henderson, of Eustis, was in the city for a few hours this morning.

25c, at the City Restaurant the only white restaurant in the city.

Wingate, a prominent citizen of Hawthorne, was a visitor to Live Oak.

T. S. Anderson went down the river this morning on a professional trip.

M. Bailey and wife left this morning for a few days visit to Jacksonville.

P. Adams, of Hampton Springs, was in Live Oak for a few hours this morning.

W. E. Algee, of Valdosta, was in the city this morning, registered at the Ethel.

Frank Owens, of Greenville, S. C., was a visitor to Live Oak yesterday afternoon.

We are making 10,000 to 20,000 copies per day. Can fill large or small orders promptly. See our prices. Live Oak Mfg. Co.

F. M. Smith, of Hampton Springs, was in the city yesterday afternoon on business.

J. C. Mangum, who has been having a "scrap" with an attack of fever, is out again.

Hon. B. B. Johnson, County Judge of Hamilton county, was in the city this morning.

Mrs. E. J. Smith, of Hampton Springs, was in the city for a short time yesterday.

J. M. Weeks, of Moultrie, Ga., was in the city this morning and registered at the Ethel.

J. T. Mercer, the mill man, was in the city this morning attending to business affairs.

Miss Lorenah Johnson, of Jasper, was in the city this morning and registered at the Ethel.

W. J. Harris, the title sidewalk man, returned yesterday afternoon from a trip down the road.

C. W. Monroe and wife passed through Live Oak this morning on their way to their home at Mayo.

Will Edwards, the popular real estate man, went up the road yesterday afternoon on a business trip.

R. E. McNeil, of the Suwannee Hardware Co., returned this morning from a flying visit to Jasper.

Surrency & Powers are making a specialty of Red Band Brand Candies at 15 cents per pound. Nothing like it.

Brad Watson, one of the largest clothing and dry goods merchant of Waycross, was in the city yesterday on business.

Mr. Coachman has sold his livery stable business, but not his sale stables and buggy and harness business. He can be found at the same old stand ready to accommodate those who desire to buy horses, mules, buggies, carriages and harness.

Read the nice display advertisement of Helvenston & Hayman in today's Democrat, and call and see the bargains offered.

R. H. Rowe, a prominent young attorney of Madison, was in the city for a short time this morning on his way to Lake City.

Buy your groceries from Surrency & Powers and get a chance at the beautiful hand painted china. You may be a lucky one.

Mrs. N. B. Cox, of Lee, arrived in the city this morning and will spend several days here, the guest of her son, A. J. Williams and family.

Suwannee Bakery has opened in the C. T. McDaniel store, opposite the court house. Fresh cakes and bread daily.—Suwannee Bakery.

Miss Conway returned to Live Oak today and will leave on the evening train for Perry to nurse the little son of Col. and Mrs. S. S. Sanford.

Beautiful plaid silks in all colors on display in Miss M. V. Edwards' window. Don't fail to see them, they have just arrived and are beautiful.

Mrs. Elie Brown, of Lee, arrived in the city this morning and will spend some time here visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Brock, in North Live Oak.

Red Band Brand Bon Bons are just as fine as any bon bons to be had anywhere, and they are much cheaper at Surrency & Powers. Try them.

Israel McCall, ex-clerk of the court of Hamilton county, who has been in the city for several days past, returned to his home at Jasper yesterday afternoon.

Hon. John M. Caldwell, editor of the Jasper News, an old war horse of Florida journalism, who has probably fallen off of and climbed back up on the editorial tripod more than any other journalists in the State, was in the city this morning shaking hands with his many Live Oak friends.

The City Pharmacy has added another improvement to its business in the shape of a carbonator. Mr. Fletcher, the manager, intends to keep pace with all others and furnish the very best cold drinks that science and the most improved and up-to-date machinery can supply.

Mrs. E. V. Wooding, mother of Mrs. F. W. Butler, left yesterday afternoon for Blackshear, Ga., to visit relatives. She will be absent for several weeks.

Misses Hampton and Sarah Powell, two attractive young ladies of Hampton Springs, were in the city this morning on their home from a visit to friends in Lake City.

Hon. John O. Ross, one of the most prominent citizens of the county, from the Rossburg section, was in Live Oak this morning shaking hands with his many Live Oak friends.

The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat and puts your stomach back into shape. Sold by City Pharmacy.

Good for the cough, removes the cold, the cause of the cough. That's the work of Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the original laxative cough syrup. Contains no opiates. Sold by City Pharmacy.

P. C. Wind, of Tallahassee, who was here for some time with the O. O. Williams Hardware Co., was in the city last night, and met a number of his former Live Oak friends, all of whom were glad to see him.

D. R. Henderson, a prominent citizen of Eustis, and a successful naval stores operator, was in the city today enroute to Mayo, where he was called to see his brother who is reported quite sick with typhoid fever.

H. A. Blackburn, one of Live Oak's leading merchants and one of her best citizens, has returned from Baltimore and New York, where he has been for the past several weeks buying his fall and winter stock of goods.

The City Pharmacy has added another improvement to its business in the shape of a carbonator. Mr. Fletcher, the manager, intends to keep pace with all others and furnish the very best cold drinks that science and the most improved and up-to-date machinery can supply.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Downing, of Wellborn, were in the city yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Downing left on the northbound Atlantic Coast Line train for Wither, Ga., where she will spend several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Miss M. V. Edwards is opening her line of fall and winter hats, and they are splendid and magnificent creations of the millinery art. She wants every lady in Live Oak to call at her store and see them. Go early before they are all picked over.

We are requested to announce that the Orange Blossom Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. C. N. Hildreth, Sr., on Ohio avenue, at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Parents are requested to remind the children of the meeting.

WANTED—Some young men unmarried to travel in crews and canvass country and town on small salary or good commission. Splendid opportunity for a hustler, experience not necessary. Apply at the Viola House. U. S. Livingston.

The Sea Island Cotton Ginning Co. operated and owned by those two staunch and reliable business men, C. N. Hildreth and M. L. Burnett, is doing a fine business now. The gins are kept busy all the time and are turning out an excellent quality of work.

Hon. Scott Dilworth Clarke, of Monticello, one of the leading young lawyers of West Florida, and a prominent leader of the young Democracy of that section of the State, was in Live Oak yesterday on professional business. He met a number of his Live Oak friends while in the city.

Today will close the first week of the present term of the Suwannee High School and the indications are that this will be the most successful and profitable term in all its history. The enrollment is nearly a hundred larger than it was last year, which shows either a large increase in the population, or an increased interest in education, and there is probability that there is some of both.

SLAUGHTER SALE

Helvenston & Hyman going out of Business

Everything must go and beginning Monday, October 1st, we propose to sell everything in our store at actual factory cost

We have complete line of Dry Goods and the finest line of Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes in Live Oak. Also an elegant line of Gents' Furnishings and Hats

A few prices quoted below will give some idea as to bargains to be had, as everything will be sold at corresponding prices:

Stetson Shoes, worth $5.00 and $6.00, each	-	-	$4.00
Douglas " " 3.50	-	-	2.75
Women's " " 3.00	-	-	2.35
Hats, worth - - 3.00	-	-	2.25
1,000 yards Check gingham, worth 8c, per yard	-	-	6c
500 yards 36-inch Percale, best, worth 15c, per yard	-	-	11c
2,000 yards Sea Island Sheeting, worth 9c, per yard	-	-	7c

We mean what we say. Everything in the store will be offered at absolute cost for cash, come and see for yourself!

REMEMBER THE DATE, OCTOBER, 1st.

HELVENSTON & HAYMAN